

X-Mas 2021

Dearest Loved, Beloved, Friend and none mentioned none forgotten,

I say it probably every year as we approach the Holidays, here we are again so this brings me back to a topic I discussed a few years ago...Perception of Time as so many things have just flown away along this second year of Corona.

First, I hope that you all have gone and are going thru this pandemic in the best possible way staying safe and healthy.

As I turned 60 this year, automatically, I just start thinking where all the time behind me have gone...there must be a place where there is a humongous amount of gone and wasted time.

From the pragmatic point: for me at 60, one year is just 1,5 % of my life as per a 6 years old is 15 % thus the conclusion is in the perception of time I have 10 X-mas when a 6 years old only has one...how unfair! ...who deserves the least get the most!

Under the past year several beloved peoples that belonged to my life have left this dimension and this has refreshed in me memories that looks like yesterday but are from up to 5 decades ago. Luckily there is in everyone's heart a place where we keep all the one that have left us in deep memory and never forgotten.

Åkulla...is most of the time only me as the boys, all three, have their own places now, but I'm grateful they still come as much their life permit and allows me to cook for them all, which is more fun than just cook for myself. It's a strange feeling see them done as "kids" and to have started their own life after completed studies, got their own places and having somebody to love & cherry for.

X-mas in Åkulla will be on the 23rd after which all boys depart in all direction to celebrate their own X-mas with their beloved.

We are still hoping in a white X-mas here in Åkulla as despite we got almost a year supply of snow early and well in time however as quick it came as fast it disappeared, but the forecast gives a hint for a second round of snow just in time for X-mas.

It doesn't happen often but I'm happy to leave this past year behind and hope in a better 2022 where we are able to return to some kind of normality and hope to see more of you all here in Åkulla as guestrooms are available 24/7 to friends.

Time to wish all of you from all of us a

Safe Merry Christmas and a Better 2022,

Tobe & the "Boys"
